Saturday afternoon Mrs. James E. Bowen entertained charmingly at her home on Montana strest with a bridge party and miscellaneous shower, !! honor of Miss Kate Adams, who will be married on June 4. Mrs. Bowen's home was decorated in Shasta dalsies, nopples, ferns and honessuckle. Bridge was the game played during the first part of the afternoon. Miss Adams sat at the head table the entire time part of the afternoon. Miss Adams sat at the head table the entire time and as the guests progressed from their tables to the head, they drew for partnership with Miss Adams. The guest of honor was seated in a gilt chair, decorated with a gold butterfly. The first prize was won by Mrs. Roy N. Davis, and was an ivery fan, with a chain attached. The consolation fell to Mrs. T. J. Stafford, and was two hand embroidered handkerchiefs. The bride-elect was presented with a silver tea-bell, engraved in her monogram. After the game, refreshments of orange sherbet and cake were served. The sherbet was arranged very daintily in orange shells, which were in the shape of yellow baskets. The handles of the baskets were green, with a daisy in the center. In the center of the take was a heart.

Monster, Enthusiastic Crowds

at the Boston Store's stupendous sixteen day international trade getting sale. Aisles packed, counters jammed with buyers all day Saturday---the greatest crowds that have ever swarmed our store are now packing the three floors to suffocation at this time of writing. The response to this great international trade getting sale in the past five days far exceeds our greatest expectations. Sorry we are, indeed, that we could not give everyone the attention we hoped to, but those who were here apreciate how difficult it was to handle the tremendous rush.

Ladies and Gentlemen-This great Trade Getting Sale offers an unheard of opportunity to buy high-grade new Summer wearing apparel at a saving of one-half and one-third of their actual values. Come this evening, come tomorrow, the 7th day of this great sale, and participate in these wonderful bargains spread out before your eyes.

The committee especially desires to establish a directory of college men and women, whether graduates or extudents. In registering all are requested to give name, present address, year of graduation and degree, or years of attendance, and the name and address of institution. A card catalog will be made which will be very valuable to all local college people.

All college men and women are requested to send their registration data to Miss Henristia Buckler or to the University Scholarship club, 601 American Bank building, El Paso, at once. When the directory is virtually complete, copies will be placed in the leading botels so that traveling college men and women may locate resident sons and daughters of their alma maters. This directory will lead to and be useful in the establishment of a college club such as is maintained in all large cities. All of the Scholarship club members are expected to send in the names of all the college people of their acquaintance. Williams and Mrs. Max Weber.
